CATHOLIC CHARITIES' BUTLER COUNTY OUTREACH SERVES FLOOD VICTIMS

LOCATION:

120 W. New Castle Street
Butler, PA 16001

Website: www.ccpgh.org

BUTLER, PA – Catholic Charities' Butler County Outreach will provide services to survivors of the recent floods, which damaged homes in Butler and Butler Township this Wednesday. Individuals and families suffering the after effects of the flood can contact Catholic Charities' Butler Outreach directly, at (724) 287-4011. Catholic Charities is part of a coalition of social service agencies serving flood victims and those in need of help.

About Catholic Charities: Catholic Charities is the primary social service agency of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, serving all, regardless of religious affiliation, at their time of great need. With offices in Allegheny, Beaver, Butler, Greene, Lawrence and Washington counties, Catholic Charities has been providing programs and services since 1910. Catholic Charities offers counseling, a Free Health Care Center for the uninsured and underinsured, Senior Centers and Services (out of Lawrence County) homeless assistance, pregnancy and parenting support, refugee services, and more. For more information about our programs and services, visit www.ccpgh.org.*
